

Help the boy find his way through the maze to the lake.

THE SABBATH VISITOR

When Jesus looked up and saw a ¹³great crowd coming toward him, he said to Philip, "Where shall we buy bread for these people to eat?" He asked this only to test him, ⁴for he already had in ⁷mind what he was going to do. Philip answered him, "²Eight months' wages would not buy enough bread for ⁸each one to have a bite!" Another of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's ⁶brother, spoke up, "¹⁷Here is a boy with five small barley loaves and two small fish, but how far will they ⁵go among the many?" Jesus said, "Have the ¹people sit down." There was plenty of grass in that place, and the ¹¹men sat down, about five thousand of them. Jesus then took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed to those who were ¹⁰seated as much as they wanted. He ⁹did the same with the fish. When they had ¹⁶all had enough to eat, he said to his ¹⁵disciples, "Gather the pieces that are left over. Let nothing be wasted." So they gathered them and filled twelve ¹⁴baskets with the ¹²pieces of the five barley loaves left over ³by those who had eaten."
